'The Knife Will Let Go', inspired by the Knife Never Letting Go

Please Note that Todd's spelling is purposeful, not a mistake.

I am Todd,
I will became a man,
I found silence,
I belive it to be imposible,
I left Ben and now feel lost,
Pysically and Emtionally
I will never let go.

I am The Noise,
I am the enemy of privacy,
I see everything and hear every thought.
I am the controller, not the master,
I am misunderstood,
I am known yet not known.
I will never let go.

I am the Silence,
I am Cruel and Impossible,
I can hear everything and see everyone,
I am the introverted version of my brother,
I am Warmer and kinder.
I will never let go.

I am the Girl,
I am the one who won't speak,
I don't understand why everybody is fussing over me,
I can't find other girls' nowadays,
It's as if some disease killed them,
I will never let go.

I am Ben,
I am lost without Todd,
I only realize when I have him no more how much I cared for him.
I only have Cillian now.
I have no-one without him.
I will never let go.

We are the townspeople,
Every thought is ours to keep.
We have our beliefs, but they don't matter.
The silence has a grip on us like an animal on its prey.
We have to let go.
